

In relation to each scenario, consider the following:

- How can we challenge behaviour that is inappropriate and unacceptable?
- Why is it so much more difficult when it is our friends?
- Why can these things NOT be passed off as banter or jokes?

Your pal wolf whistles at a group of women / girls

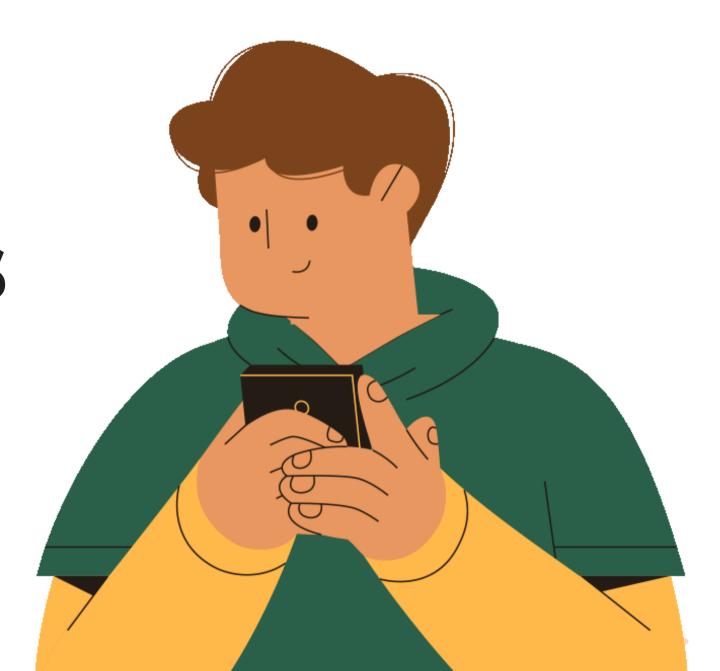

Your pal has been rejected by a girl he likes and starts calling her a slut

You see a friend say sexist and derogatory things about women and girls online

dualfrequency.co.uk

A friend comments on the length of a girls skirt and starts touching her legs

A girl is walking alone and you are in a group of boys who start cat calling her

dualfrequency.co.uk

A group of friends dare you to send inappropriate pictures to a girl

97% of women and girls have experienced sexual harassment. What can you do to change this statistic for your friends who are girls?