LET'S UNPACK THAT

DUALFREQUENCY.CO.UK

It may not be all men –
but it is enough men

"WE KNOW THIS BECAUSE 97% OF WOMEN AND GIRLS HAVE EXPERIENCED SEXUAL HARASSMENT"

Enough men
make women
feel they can't dress in a certain way

"If I wear this I might be sexually
harassed by a man"

Enough men
make women
feel they can't leave their drink

"If I leave my drink a man might spike it"

Enough men
make women
feel they can't go for a walk in the dark

Enough men
make women feel
they need to call someone whilst
walking home

"Text me when you get home"

"I will call you on the way"

Enough men stand by whilst their friend won't stop
bugging a girl who has asked him to go away

"I wish this guy would leave me alone - why are they all letting this happen"

Enough men for women to have a rape alarm and a plan to call for help
during an attack

"I have my alarm, I will have my keys in my fists and call you on the way with my location so you know to tell the police where I am if I get attacked"

Do you still think it is #notallmen

Women change their behaviour every day to avoid sexual harassment. Not all men sexually harass women and girls – but it is all men's responsibility to:

- Reflect on their own behaviour
- Challenge the behaviour of other men
- Look out for all women
